Executive Proclamation
State of South Dakota
Office of the Governor

Whereas, Norman Cihak began his employment as County Auditor for Charles Mix County in March of 1979; and,

Whereas, During Norman's tenure with Charles Mix County, he has been instrumental in obtaining many grants, updating the election process and computerizing and networking many records for the county; and,

Whereas, Norman and his wife, Judy, are the proud parents of three children and two grandchildren; and,

Whereas, Norman's retirement days will probably find him golfing, hunting, watching the Minnesota Vikings and Minnesota Twins, and spending more time with his grandchildren. He will be dearly missed by his co-workers for his smile, sense of humor and friendship; and,

Whereas, Norman has always exhibited great leadership qualities and an outstanding work ethic, and it is fitting and proper for the Governor to recognize and honor Norman for his 26 years of service to Charles Mix County:

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim February 28, 2005, as in South Dakota, and I join his friends, family, and colleagues in honoring Norman for his contributions to his community and state.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Thirteenth Day of January in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Five.

M. Michael Rounds, Governor

Attest:

Chris Nelson, Secretary of State
